

THREE THOUSAND TO BUY CHUGBIKE SPEED AT FAIR

It Will Cost That Amount to Put Proper Records on Mile Track and to Attract Big Entry Lists for Two Great Road Races

A conference yesterday between Secretary C. B. Wood of the State Fair association and the members of the competition committee of the Phoenix motorcycle club resulted in the lining up of much work, in preparation for the three big race events in the fall. It was practically decided that the two-wheeler speed should cost about three thousand dollars, and that the money should be raised according to the original plans of the committee. The three events which will be featured are the Los Angeles to Phoenix Desert Road race, the Springfield to Phoenix Northern Arizona endurance race, and the five-event state fair auto day program.

At the suggestion of State Referee John Hohl, the committee will consider sanctioning the three events at once, in order that they may get the benefit of such publicity as may accrue between now and the time of starting. It is agreed that it is only by hiking up the purses, and putting across much advertising, that the three events can get the starters they need to develop speed and sensational side issues. By starting now, and getting the matter to the attention of the big eastern factory men, such riders as Baker, Perry, Goad, Blair, Tice, Warner, Gardner, Johns, Jones, etc. can be attracted. It is admitted that with three events, the work will be much increased, but so well is the situation lined up, it can be handled successfully from Phoenix. Most of the local riders, it is believed, will enter the Interstate race, that being the pet of the fair commission, and a mighty good race, at that. The factory men will line up pretty well on the side of the Los Angeles to Phoenix event, and then both classes of riders may be depended upon for the five-event card at the fair grounds.

It will take in the neighborhood of three thousand to stage the three races, but the immensity of the sum need not frighten anyone. For according to Fred Coulter, who suggested the Northern Arizona road race, much of that money may be raised outside along the route for district prizes. For instance, Springfield and Phoenix, the start and finish towns, will contribute to the grand prizes, which will aggregate $600. Holbrook, Winslow, Flagstaff, Williams, Ash Fork, Prescott and Wickenburg will each reward the riders making the best times in the laps ending in those towns.

It is planned to make this a two-day race, with Flagstaff as the night control. This will give the riders about ten hours work the first day and nine the second, or enough to make it one fine large contest. Most of the Phoenix cracks know the Flagstaff to Phoenix section of the road very well, indeed, so that leaves but the first lap to be studied. At least five entries can be counted on in Phoenix, Globe will supply one, Flagstaff one or two, Prescott two to four. Counting them all, this makes eleven entries already accounted for, or enough to assure the success of the race.

In the Los Angeles to Phoenix race, there will be at least thirty five starters. Charles Miller, an enthusiastic Los Angeles motorcyclist is quoted as saying that out of Los Angeles alone will come eight crack road riders. He says he believes San Diego will put in five more, and that Phoenix, Brawley, San Bernardino, and other towns of South California can be counted on for five more. Eastern professionals to the number of at least ten are to be counted on, and other amateurs, free-lancing it from the other sections of the states ought to bring the total well over the thirty mark.

Negotiations are already under way by letter and wire for a conference between Phoenix and Los Angeles race committees. Fred Coulter proposes to take a member of the Phoenix committee over the northern Arizona race, to line up the towns and the riders. The track races can be handled from Phoenix headquarters. In E. G. Baker, Phoenix has an excellent booster. Baker is now rambling about the eastern sticks, getting licked once in a while—it's true, but spreading the word about Phoenix. In Dodge City, where he struggled through the first pattering rain drops to the 25th mile in the three century grind, he lined up several tentative entries for the Los Angeles Phoenix race. Don Johns, Baker's old rival, will be straddling racers for the Merkel people by fall, and he is another sure entry.

HUNT-YOUNG BATTERY IN SUNDAY GAME

Governor Pitches and the Mayor Catches While the City Manager Bats—New Park's Official Opening With Mesa vs. Phoenix

Although the new ball park has been christened with baseball games, and called by its own proper name a couple of hundred times, its official opening is not yet. Not until Mesa and Phoenix come together on the diamond by the Salt, will the new and as yet unnamed park be considered completely inaugurated. This happens Sunday, when the Solons and the Jewels meet for the first time in many weeks, on this side of the river.

There will be many distinguishments to the game. His excellency, Governor Hunt, will pitch the first ball. Mayor George U. Young will catch—that is unless the batsman happens to see it right and crack it into the bleachers for a home run. Mesa batsman's name is W. Addison Farish, and he's the city manager.

Phoenix will bat just about as in Thursday's game. Krause has been nominated to pitch, and Barrett will run on the same ticket in case the freckled kid is elected to a wallop during the early innings.

Dodge, the pygmy lead off man, will face McGowan. The reason he will face McGowan is because he has been broadly hinted that Doc Goodman will start the game for Mesa. At first sight this statement might seem to impute inaccuracy to the sayings of Mesa managers, but not so. Phoenix would like to see what Doc has brought back from the sticks that entirely surround Keokuk. In fact Phoenix is persuading itself that it is to clamor for the aforementioned Doc.

"Pep" Cook, backstop and chief wig-wag man for the Senators is still hitting second, though why, or by what quirk of baseball reasoning nobody seems to know. On Thursday both Cook and Anderson found themselves on the bases at once, and scored in response to cries from the grandstand and the crack of the bat against horsehide.

Barton, the Ray come-back is served up third, then follow in rapid succession Hudson, Hathaway, Warren, Kimberley, Lewis and Krause.

WHY NOT ARMOR FOR BULLET?
An ingenious New York doctor has invented a pillbox of mercury tablet in which the antidote is combined with the poison so that a person may swallow corrosive sublimite, intentionally or accidentally with impunity. It's a capital idea and ought to be applied to poisons generally, and possibly Maxim might find some way of applying the principle to firearms. An automatic self-resisting bullet, or something of that sort, would be of much greater utility than his silencer.—Philadelphia Record.

DON DENSMORE COMES TO FAIR

Dinnie's Fine String Entered—Monday, Wednesday and Saturday to Feature Horse Speed—Best in Land Will Be Here

C. B. Wood, secretary of the state fair, has received a letter from A. D. Dinnie of Minot, N. D., saying that he would enter Don Densmore, 2:02 1/4 and a string of horses, nine in all, in the State Fair races this fall.

Don Densmore is coming here to go into the 2:03 and the F. F. A. paces. He is one of the greatest horses in the United States today, racing year after year, game as they make them, and always there with the goods. He has a record of 2:02 1/4, and he expects to go up against Don Pronto, 2:02 1/4; Jim Logan, 2:02 1/4; Laeta J., 2:03, and in addition to the above, it is expected that Directum L., 2:02 1/4; Frank Bonkash, 2:01 1/2, and Hal B. Jr., 2:02 1/4, will enter.

When this bunch of horses gets together, it will be the finest and fastest bunch of horses that ever trod on dirt on one track at the same time.

These horses are of such note, and their meeting together in one race will be such a great event in the horse world, that horsemen will come clear across the continent to see them go.

The fair commission's speed merchants will feature Monday's racing with the 2:03, the 2:07 paces and the 2:09 trot. On Wednesday, the feature race will be the 2:04 pace. Of course, everybody is looking to the Saturday program for the best excitement, when, in the free for all pace, the track's best time will be made. Of all the days, Saturday will be the most carefully watched. On no other afternoon will the gee-gees make such time. A special prayer for fine weather, will be ordered for that last great afternoon.

BEARS INVADE HAYDEN FOR BRACE OF GAMES

Tempe Leaves This Morning to Fill Double Date in Smelter Town—Oviedo for Slab Duty First

TEMPE, July 10.—The Tempe Bears will leave bright and early tomorrow morning on their auto trip to Hayden, Arizona, where they play a Saturday and Sunday series with the clubs of that city.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Bears make their initial appearance before the fans of the Hayden and Wilkeman country, pitted against the Ray Consolidated Concentrator team, and twenty-four hours later will find them starting their second and final game with the Smelter club. The Tempe team will have a batting line-up something similar to this in the first game: Williams, lf.; Moore, 3b.; Griffen, 1b.; Nutt, c.; Oviedo, p.; Buck, cf.; Hanna, 2b.; Bolin, ss.; Goodman, rf. If such a mixture of the local batters does not fix things, the order may be slightly altered for the Sunday contest. Oviedo is slated for slab duty first, since Nettle pitched yesterday. Incidentally, Nettle still feels the effect of that strenuous sixth inning. His arm is just a wee bit sore from extra duty in that session and the three which followed.

Two full auto loads will make the trip. Aside from the ten players, there will be in the party Manager Abe Lakin, J. Hubbard Moore and Dr. Edward Cheely. The plan is to start the homeward trip to the valley immediately after supper Sunday evening.

WILLING SIGNERS IN KANSAS

Did you ever try to get a thousand valid signatures to a nominating petition?

If you have, you know it is not an easy task—even with a popular candidate.

Out in Kansas it is necessary to get 1700 signatures on a primary petition for state office. The other day the petitions for the state progressive ticket were filed, and they carried nearly thirteen thousand more signatures than are required.

Of course, the names of Victor Murdock for senator and Henry Allen for governor stir enthusiasm in Kansas. They would anywhere, if character and ability count.—Chicago Post.

This Is How Lankau Did Hackensmith At Prescott

The wrestling twins of the Five Bennett Sisters who are appearing at the Columbia theater this week are anxious to meet any girl wrestlers of Phoenix tonight on amateur rules governing contests of this nature. The elder Bennett Sisters are also willing to meet all comers during the week.

This engagement, and negotiations are pending with a former lady wrestler who now resides at Globe for a contest next Monday night. Arrangements can be made with Manager Glass, on a basis of the contestant taking a fixed purse, win, draw or lose.

SPORT COMMENT

Just such a flock of junk as they are now printing about the Ritchie-Weish scrap, is what we might expect after a fight in which Willie got licked. After handing all the compliments of the season to our well licked lightweight champion, we must still maintain that he is acting like a little young kid over getting walloped. Defeated champions have had return matches before now, and second chances at their lost crowns. Instead of trying to persuade the world he was gypped out of his title, Ritchie ought to begin hounding Welsh for another mill, and then we should see what we should see.

All right for you, Amos. Harvey Betts saw fit to expose the manner and the method of tacking the name of "Scoop" to him who bears it, and the really made quite a neat little speech at yesterday's Rotary club meeting about it. "Scoop" admits that it was Bettie and Gee Wow Brown who put that name upon him. But it will also explain how he retaliated. Betts, you know, has the most freckled son and heir it has ever been our fortune to witness.

When Young Betts was playing good football for the Coyotes, we just went and nicknamed him "Speck." And if "Speck" is any worse than "Scoop" we'll put in with you!

Baseball in disguise. You'd scarcely know it now it is clad in the dignity of a regular home, and surrounded by the group and ceremony of big leagueishness. It's rather good for the old game to be seated in such famous places as the new park. We have proposed the concentration of other sports there, too, and it's a hunch that some day the Phoenix Athletic club, an organization of business and professional men, may have a home. The motorcycle club is sniffing around, seeking the trail of the elusive clubhouse, so why shouldn't the gun club and the rifle club and the other sportsmen's clubs get in on it?

To Freddie Welsh, the congratulations of the world, and the commendation of all who love to see a man stick to a thing. If we recall correctly, Freddie has tried just 4,582,791 times to get in the ring with a champion. And just see what he did to one, when he finally landed a chance!

days. At present, Flagstaff looks like the logical place for the night control. From Springfield to Holbrook, past Winslow to Flag is a good long hard day's ride. About eight hours, we should say. But from Flag to Phoenix is a fast road worth about thirty-five miles an hour of anybody's speed. That is a seven hour trip, figuring closely. If big enough money is put up, and sufficient space is covered in the motorcycle magazines and papers, this endurance run will attract some big names in single track racing. Ervin Baker, will be in Phoenix by that time, and his name will be one of the first to go down on the entry list.

The "mistakes of managers" is a subject over which ball players as well as the rest of us human raves about and denounce. But the mistakes of a baseball manager are not all to the game and its winning or losing. In Phoenix and the Salt River valley, baseball managers have wondered why their crowds were small, and then have gone ahead making errors of judgment that no good showman would commit. For baseball is athletic vaudeville, nothing more. And when the teams fail to play with pep and energy, the house grows chill. Even in the hottest weather may this happen. Pretty soon the reader will be looking for a moral. Here it is: Play not thy stout pitcher to the end of his muscle's good, but rather substitute another than let intemperance fall upon thee. What if your opponents crack it to you for runs and more runs? Sling in another hurler just to show your heart is in the right place.

Safford, which is in Graham county, state of Arizona is going to have horse trots in August. It is a Graham county fair that's attracting the owners of gee-gees to the east, and we understand that a whole carload of speedy horseflesh will leave Phoenix bent thither. At present interest is centering in the invasion of the north by Jack Gibson and other southerners. Gibson's Tick Tack with Commodore Passey up legged it home with the half mile running race at Frontier Day, and then took train for Flagstaff to argue it out once more with Split Second in a match race. S. S. took it out of Tick Tack once, but there be deposters who predict that the black will show up the big northern bay.
